

Burrata & The Trulli of Alberobello

Location: Alberobello | Duration: 4 hours

YOUR PRIVATE ITALY

Today we go in search of Puglia's famous trulli houses. These cone shaped dwellings are unique to the region and in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Alberobello you see a concentration of over 1,000 trulli houses. Our expert guide will bring the history of this picturesque town to life.

Then its off to discover the secrets of cheese-making in the ancient traditions of Puglia. You will meet a local cheese artisan at his farm for a demonstration in the art of making fresh burrata. You may even get to twist a knot of mozzarella or two! You'll see the room where the mozzarella is aged to make the famous scamorza and, of course, sample a selection. A taste of some of the farm's best produce along with some of the freshest cheese you will ever eat!

Recommended departure times: 9:30am or 3-5pm (depending on the time of year).
